express

Encapsulates each needed operation in different middleware or HTTP requests.

Uses the router to define what happens for each request

listings.server.routes

Encapulates the logic for every route a user might navigate to.

Provides coordinates for requested listing

coordinates.server.controller

This controller defines how to retrieve the coordinates for a given request.

Handles the desired CRUD operation

listings.server.controller

This controller defines all necessary CRUD operations for managing the database.